

- 4- 1. Charlotte was at the deserted dockside with the exception of seeing a man swimming himself from the deck to the ship.
- 17 2. When Charlotte did not want to board the Seahawk, Mr. Grummage stated, "Miss Doyle," he returned begin up on a ship w/ full compliment of capt. & crew could be construed as alone.
- 20 3. When Mr. Grummage left Charlotte, she was never to see him again.
- 22 4. Within her cabin she had a built-in chest, a pillow and blanket with no single piece of ornamentation. It was ugly, unnatural & impossible.
- 24 5. Charlotte was resolved to never leave her cabin until we reach America.
- 26 6. Zachariah is the cook, surgeon, carpenter, preacher (list all) aboard the ship.
- 33 7. The man reached for a bell set up at the head of the quarterdeck in kind of a gallows. 9 men appeared in the ship's waist.
- 36 8. After the captain told what he expected of the crew, he stated, "I have no desire to speak to any of you again." Separation makes for an honest crew.
- 38 9. Charlotte asked the captain, "Please sir," she whispered, "my father would not want me here in this company."
- 39 10. Captain responded with, "Miss Doyle, you have my word. no harm shall come your way."
- 42 11. After recovering from her seasickness, Charlotte went on deck and found everyone staring at her because she had the dirk in her hand.
- 43 12. Charlotte tried to get Zachariah to take the dirk back.
- 44 13. Zachariah stated that "a ship is a nation of its own."
- 45 14. "I (Charlotte) drew myself up. "Mr. Zachariah," I said, "the captain is a fine man
- 46 15. Zachariah told Charlotte that Mr. Cranick was punished hard and that the captain said Mr. Cranick's labouring arm was his by rights.
- 46 16. Charlotte replied with, "justice is poorly served when you speak ill of others."
- 48 17. All the men signed back onto the ship for revenge.